

A vintage metal sign from an East Coast maritime museum sets the scene for The Battery's Barbary Coast Library, inspired by a well-read ship captain. Walls are swathed in deep navy blue, and the herringbone floor is made of reclaimed wood.

Ken Fulk drinks in the moment at The Battery's exclusive Musto Bar, a suave vision of cerused wood, brass, and soft leather.